In Consideration Of Cats by Keith Brazil, illustrated by Colin Francolino-Scott, Keith & Michael Brazil.

STORY: “Everybody wants to be a cat!” In Consideration of Cats is an essay and meditation on an aspect of joy and the wonderment of cats. A collection of notes, observations, insights and poems reflecting on the behaviour, nature and antics of cats and the healing that the world of our feline friends can bring us.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Keith Brazil was born in Broadstairs, Kent, England. He trained in Dance Theatre at Laban Trinity Conservatoire, London, and was a founder member of ‘Adventures In Motion Pictures’ Dance Company. He has worked as a freelance professional dancer, choreographer, teacher, and dance lecturer. Keith has also trained as a Complementary Therapist in Spiritual Healing and Reflexology. He gained a degree in English Studies and is currently engaged in writing a collection of metaphysical and fictional stories, essays, poetry and novels. His first book The Wilderness Diary was published in December 2012. The companion book, Popcorn, Parasites, Precious & Pearls, is due for release Autumn 2013. He lives and works in London.
